THIRTY DAYS CERTIFICATE COURSE ON THE TOPIC

MS Excel

Report

From January 7 to February 13, 2019, the college's department of computer science offered a 30-day certificate course in MS-Excel under the direction of Honorable Principal Dr. H. G. Patil. Daily offline lectures consisted of one hour. The student was assisted by knowledgeable professors from the computer science department. Together with syllabus subjects, emphasis was placed on practical. The college students' participation in this course was a notable response. In addition to these, pupils were required to learn how to use a computer and MS-Excel and explained and demonstrated to students how to solve basic math problems, format documents, create analysis tables, store all data in one location, etc. The interim professors from the Department of Computer Science were in charge of leading the session, making the proposal of thanks, and making all technological arrangements.
